

Vice – Mayor Charles J. (Chuck) McCrosson

A first move south to seek paradise, landed Vice-Mayor McCrosson in the Town of South Palm Beach in the year 2003. Success! This is where he gained a calling for Town interest quickly by attending regular monthly Council Meetings.

Vice-Mayor McCrosson was first elected to the Town Council in 2006 and ran unopposed in his bid for re-election in 2008. He has been quoted in saying, " This is the most rewarding position I have ever been actively involved in, the diversity of people who are in South Palm Beach, do graciously, hold one common bond – FRIENDLINESS – which simply makes this Town a great place to live". He also noted that it is his special privilege to serve the Town of South Palm Beach.

Vice-Mayor McCrosson is a member of the Palm Beach County League of Cities, and serves on the Legislative Home Rule Committee. This group protects the rights of Towns and Cities to govern their relevant course.

Born and raised in South Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Vice-Mayor McCrosson participated in all sports through school, with the emphasis on football, baseball, basketball, and track. Later he attended Penn State University and Saint Joseph's University.

Prior to coming to South Palm Beach, Vice-Mayor McCrosson worked in the oil industry for thirty-five years employed by Atlantic Richfield,

Atlantic and Sunoco, holding positions of Accounting, Shipping and Receiving Coordinator, Quality Control and Materials Management. He was elected Union Chairman, overseeing contract negotiations for the workers at the Philadelphia Refineries.

Vice-Mayor McCrosson is a proud parent of two sons, Chuck and Christopher; four grandchildren, Kasey, Courtney, Charlie, and Sara. He feels like there is no greater feeling than watching your children grow and have them find the joy of their own children.

With his wife Nancy, both are active parishioners and members of Saint Edward's Catholic Church, and Nancy is the Chairperson for the Town of South Palm Beach Community Affairs Advisory Board (C.A.A.B.).

Vice-Mayor McCrosson is a diehard Philadelphia sports fan. Even though he and Nancy have been in the Town now for five years, it is still the Eagles, Phillies, Sixers, and Flyers for him. The only non Philly team he supports is "The Fighting Irish of Notre Dame". For the past twenty years he has traveled to South Bend, Indiana alongside thirty other "Irish Fans" watching Notre Dame play (trips organized by his longtime friend "Notre Dame Harvey").

Years ago, Vice-Mayor McCrosson started writing a book about football and other sports. It still has some chapters to go, and someday he hopes to finish.

According to Vice-Mayor McCrosson about "South Palm Beach and Me", "My heart is here, my pride is here, my commitment to preserve paradise is here, and my home is here, twelve months a year".
